Day of Mourning Remembers Lost Lives

On April 28, more than 100 countries worldwide will mark an official Day of Mourning for workers killed or injured on the job. This annual remembrance serves as a reminder to do everything possible to make our workplaces safer and healthier.

Through education and prevention efforts, the WCB is here to support safe and healthy work and workplaces, and put workers and employers at the centre of all we do.

In Winnipeg, SAFE Workers of Tomorrow will commemorate the Day of Mourning with its annual Leaders’ Walk on April 26 to honour those who have lost their lives at work.

The National Day of Mourning is not only a day to remember and honour those lives lost or injured due to a workplace tragedy, but also a day to renew our commitment to improve health and safety in the workplace and prevent further tragedies.

Steps for Life Walk

Every day, three workers in Canada will die on the job. That's more than 1,000 families devastated by a workplace tragedy each year.

Threads of Life is an association that supports the healing journey of families who have suffered from a workplace fatality, traumatic life-altering injury, or occupational disease.

Join hundreds of walkers on Sunday, May 5 for the Steps for Life Walk at Kildonan Park. The 5 km walk is an annual fundraiser for families of workplace tragedies. Registration costs $15 and kicks off at 10 a.m.
